1. What kind of suffering have you experienced in life (not necessarily just persecution) since coming to know Jesus?
2. Have you ever been tempted to doubt the goodness of God when experiencing suffering or seeing suffering in the lives of others?
3. How did you deal with those doubts or how are you dealing with those doubts?
4. Suffering doesn't make prayer pointless. How has God used the prayers you have prayed in your own life, even when He did not answer them like you wanted Him to?
5. Living in the tension of praying boldly/specifically, while trusting God when He does not answer those requests is difficult. What can you pray boldly and specifically for this week?
