I am a church member.

I like the metaphor of membership. It's not membership as in a civic organization or a country club. It's the kind of membership given to us in 1 Corinthians 12: "Now you are the body of Christ, and individual members of it" (1 Corinthians 12:27).

Because I am a member of the body of Christ, I must be a functioning member, whether I am an "eye", an "ear", or a "hand." As a functioning member, I will give. I will serve. I will minister. I will evangelize. I will study. I will seek to be a blessing to others. I will remember that "if one member is honored, all the members rejoice with it" (1 Corinthians. 12:26).

I will seek to be a source of unity in my church. I know there are no perfect pastors, staff, or other church members. But neither am I. I will not be a source of gossip or dissension. One of the greatest contributions I can make is to do all I can in God's power to help keep the church in unity for the sake of the gospel.

I will not let my church be about my preferences and desires. That is self-serving. I am a member in this church to serve others and to serve Christ. My Savior went to a cross for me. I can deal with any inconveniences and matters that just aren't my preferences or style.

I will regularly pray for my church and staff. I understand that the church staff's work is never ending. Their days are filled with numerous demands that bring emotional highs and lows. They must deal with critics. They must be a good husband/wife and father/mother. Because they cannot do all things in their own power, I will pray for their strength and wisdom.

I will lead my family to be good members of this church as well. We will pray together for our church. We will worship together in our church. We will serve together in our church. And we will ask Christ to help us fall deeper in love with this church because He gave His life for her.

This membership is a gift. When I received the free gift of salvation through Jesus Christ, I became a part of the body of Christ. I soon thereafter identified with a local body and was baptized. And now I am humbled and honored to serve and to love others in our church. I pray that I will never take my membership for granted, but see it as a gift and an opportunity to serve others and to be a part of something so much greater than any one person or member.

As a member, I have read and agree with the CFC doctrinal statement. I will strive to live my life in accordance with the teachings of the church, it's doctrinal beliefs and positions. Should I fall short in this, I welcome the church to come alongside me to help correct and restore me. (Matthew 18:15-17, Galatians 6:1)
